THE FIRST READING

Isaiah 25:6-9

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah.

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM

Psalm 24

BCP p. 613

At 8:00 AM the Psalm is prayed by the Lector and the People.

At 10:00 AM the Psalm is chanted by the Choir.

THE SECOND READING

Revelation 21:1-6a

A Reading from the Revelation to John.

I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them as their God; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.”

And the one who was seated on the throne said, “See, I am making all things new.” Also he said, “Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.” Then he said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.”

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

The People sing the refrain after the Choir and then after each verse.

THE GOSPEL

John 11:32-44

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.” When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, “Where have you laid him?”

They said to him, “Lord, come and see.” Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, “See how he loved him!” But some of them said, “Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?”

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, “Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.” Jesus said to her, “Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?” So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.” When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, “Unbind him, and let him go.”

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Immersed in the loving cloud of witnesses we offer our prayers with joy and hope as we say, Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

May your church pursue its ministry and proclaim the good news with integrity, humility, and courage, that the whole world may come to know the love of Christ. We remember especially Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury; Sean, our Presiding Bishop; Douglas, our Bishop; James, our Rector; and all our lay leaders. Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

May our nation and various communities be places of peace and opportunity where all people may thrive and be free to pursue their potential, and places blessed with leaders who pursue the common good and work for the health all. We pray especially for Joseph, our President; Ron, our Governor; Andy, our Mayor; and all candidates for public office. Lord in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

Mend what is broken, heal what is amiss, and bring wholeness and peace to all people that we might live the abundant life of Christ. We pray especially for Carol, Joey, and those we name now. We also pray for those in military service, especially those we name now. Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

We are surrounded by the love of those who have already entered into your eternal care. We remember especially Brian Allen, Sandy Boehning, Judy Girard, Nelson Gough, Deborah Lomas, Frank Porter, Don Prosser, Ann Rezabek, Gigi Rivera, Mary Ann Tucker, and Patti-Jo Williams. Grant us one day to join them in that great cloud of witnesses and to be an inspiration today to those who will be your church on earth tomorrow. Lord in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

The Celebrant prays the concluding Collect.
