

THE WHEEL

News from St. Catherine's Episcopal Church

JUNE 2017

Dear People of St. Catherine's,

I finished my chemo in May – a long, four-month journey. The doctors are very happy with the results as far as they can see. Surgery will be early June and then the radiation oncologist will determine how much radiation I will get, beginning in July. I will keep you posted. I continue to be grateful for good health insurance and wonderful support – from parishioners and from my family and friends. Thank you for all the prayers – and please keep praying -- for healing and recovery and strength. I have a large pile of cards on a table in my dining room that I look through once in a while – most of them from you. Thank you again!

Something to think about that may help us all when I return in September came from my meeting with the wardens a few weeks ago. Lance Rocks, Jr. Warden, talked about my medical leave as having some similarities to a military deployment. Of course it is not the same thing – but the similarities are that I will have been gone for a long time, (8 months total) and the parish has been functioning without me. Those of you who are in the military or in military families will understand how the re-entry takes some intentional work on both sides. A husband or wife has been gone for 9 months or more – the spouse and children have learned to get by on their own – and when the person comes home from service, not only are they changed by their experience, but also the family has changed. Everyone needs to work at getting re-acquainted and try not to make assumptions based on the past that may not be true anymore. If this is a helpful analogy for you, please give it some thought. We will do some intentional re-connecting this fall.

I will continue praying for you as you pray for me and my family. My oncologist told me that for most people it takes about 6 months after the end of chemo for them to feel like they are somewhat back to normal as far as energy, etc. Not to mention, on top of that, the recovery from surgery and radiation. I continue to take my pilgrimage of treatment and healing one day at a time, paying close attention to what my body is telling me, what I am capable of doing.

I wish you all a blessed Pentecost! I trust you will enjoy the wonderful priests who will be celebrating and preaching this summer at St. Catherine's.

In Christ,

Mother Susan+

PARISH BUSINESS

A Note from Your Senior Warden

St. Catherine of Alexandria Mission Statement:

“To nurture each other in the knowledge and love of God – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – and to share the Good News with all.”

Mother Susan has asked that the Senior Warden make some comments moving forward as part of the Wheel in her absence. Hopefully you have seen her comments on the front page of this month newsletter. It is good to hear she is progressing nicely in her battle against this disease. She has a long way to go, and our thoughts and prayers are with her. She plans to return approximately September 1.

St. Catherine’s has entered into an agreement with the Taoist Tai Chi Society to hold one of their weekly classes at our parish in the Parish Hall. They will meet on Wednesday evenings 6-9p.m. beginning May 31, 2017. We currently have a few parishioners who have been a part of this group at another facility here in Temple Terrace. The Taoist Tai Chi Society has decided they would like to rent our facility each week to hold their classes. They will utilize the parish hall for their classes. They will move some tables out of their way each week and replace to original position when they are done. There is potential for holding more classes at St. Catherine’s come the fall of 2017. Those discussions are still ongoing. We welcome the group and hope some of you might give them a try in the coming weeks. As I stated, we have several parishioners at St. Catherine’s who are regular participants with this Tai Chi group.

In the coming months, the weekend services at St. Catherine’s will be conducted by several different supply priests. Mother Susan had made these supply priest arrangements before she was diagnosed with her illness and was planning her sabbatical. I have spoken with each priest, and they are anxious to come to St. Catherine’s to lead us in worship. All have been to our parish previously. The month of June schedule for our priest is:

Weekend June 3-4	All Services	Reverend Steve Rudacille
Weekend June 10-11	All Services	Reverend Steve Rudacille
Weekend June 17-18	Saturday Service	Reverend Ed Scully
	Sunday Services	Reverend Ralph Strohm
Weekend June 24-25	Saturday Service	Reverend Rick Campbell
	Sunday Services	Reverend Ralph Strohm

As we announced earlier in an e-mail blast to the parish, we are temporarily suspending some of our services for the summer. All services will resume in the fall.

10am Healing Service on Wednesday mornings
Evening Prayer 6pm Monday through Thursday Evenings
Centering Prayer 11am Tuesday mornings
Contemplative Prayer Service 7pm Second Thursday of month.

Who have you been meaning to invite to church lately??

As I discussed last month, the best way to get more folks to our parish is for YOU to invite a friend, relative or neighbor to join you some Sunday. Each of us need to take the time and make the effort to invite someone to our church.

In closing, I would ask that you keep Mother Susan in your prayers. She is battling this terrible disease and our prayers and thoughts are a comfort. She has expressed to me many times her deepest thanks and appreciation for our prayers and well wishes and know she is looking forward to joining us again soon.

AROUND ST. CATHERINE'S

The 5th Annual St. Catherine's Fine Arts Camp is right around the corner! Thank you to everyone that has already donated. We really appreciate your generosity!

In meeting with our teachers, we still need:

- Quart size Ziploc bags
- Large box of Borax
- 10 boxes of food coloring
- Assorted variety of dry beans for shakers

To offset food costs we could use:

- Stouffer's Mac-n-Cheese Frozen, Party Size
 - Lays or other variety pack of chips
 - Krusteaz muffin and cookie mixes
 - Hot dogs/Hamburgers
- o Keep in mind, we always contribute "left overs" to the 4th of July picnic!

If you would prefer to contribute to a scholarship for a deserving camper, we would welcome that as well, as requests for scholarships have increased.

Once again, we thank you for all you have done and continue to do for Summer Camp. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact
